SCIENTIST IS PERMITTED TO STATE BELIEF

Judge to Determine Admissibility After Statement.

DAYTON, Tenn., July 15. (By Associated Press)—Argument as to the competency of scientific testimony in the Scopes' case will be made in the court room here tomorrow, a development eagerly expected by participants and lookers-on in Dayton. The state had rested its case and one scientific witness, Dr. Maynard M. Metcalf, former professor of zoology at Oberlin College, Ohio, was on the witness stand for the defense when court adjourned late today.

Dr. Metcalf's testimony will be heard in the absence of the jury as a test to show the line along which the defense hopes to proceed, and to which emphatic objection is made by the state. When his examination has been completed the attorneys will argue the competency of such testimony. Every indication pointed to a hard fight before the court on the question. The defense hopes to prove by Dr. Metcalf and other scientific scholars that there is no conflict between evolution theories and Christianity. One of the questions asked the witness this afternoon concerned his church affiliations. He testified that he is now a member of the Congregationalist church and formerly was a member of the Presbyterian church. He has taught two Bible classes, he said.

Case Moved Rapidly
The case moved rapidly after reaching the state of actual testimony. The more or less neglected jury was brought into the court room after an extended period of exclusion. A plea of not guilty was entered for John T. Scopes by one of his attorneys. The jury was sworn in at last and was actually a part of the case. The jurymen heard Walter White, superintendent of a school, two school boys students of Scopes and F. E. Robinson, chairman of the board of education, testify for the state. They saw "a civil biology" by George W. Hunter, and a Bible introduced in evidence. The state witnesses presented testimony to the effect that Scopes had taught that a theory of evolution as expounded in the official text book of the state and that he had admitted he could not teach this book without violating the anti-evolution teaching statute.

The state rested and the defense called Dr. Metcalf as its first witness. No objection came from Attorney General A. T. Stewart as the witness was led through a detailed account of his scientific activities since he was ten years of age.

At the first mention of "evolution" objection came from the state as to the admissibility of such testimony. It was finally agreed to exclude the jury, permit the witness to answer a number of questions and argue the competency of his testimony.

Jury Retires
The jury retired, not until Captain J. H. Thompson, one of the most striking figures on the jury had taken occasion to defend his fellow jurors against the suspicion that they might harbor about the grounds and hear the argument from amplifiers scattered about the lawn. The court expressed its full confidence in the integrity of the jury.

Dr. Metcalf told of his years of study and work as a teacher of zoology. He recounted his degrees and connections in scientific research. After this detail Clarence Darrow asked:

"Are you an evolutionist?"

"Surely," replied the witness, as the attorney general seemed about to interpose an objection.

"Do you know any scientists who are not evolutionists?"

"Yes," replied the witness, "Mr. Darwin's next question was Mr. Stewart's objection, and in this time before an answer could be made."

The court instructed the witness to whisper his answer to the court stenographer and admonished that court attaché not to permit the press to get it. The answer was whispered and entered in the record.

Describes Evolution
Then Dr. Metcalf was asked to give his definition of evolution. The witness said that he was opposed to definitions but was willing to give descriptions. The question was finally lost in the (Continued on Page Three)

Visit Birthplace of Massachusetts Men Who Were Presidents.

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., July 15. (By Associated Press)—In the role of sightseers, President and Mrs. Coolidge today visited the 300 year old city of Quincy where John Adams and John Quincy Adams, the only two other residents of Massachusetts to become president were born and buried.

Cruising down the coast from Marblehead to the Mayflower, the President and Mrs. Coolidge with a small party of guests, debarked at the Fore River Yard of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding corporation, a steamer from the new airplane carrier, Lexington which is near completion.

From the deck of his yacht the president viewed with interest the huge red hull of the Lexington but did not go over to its ways to inspect the craft.

Leaving the ship yard by motor, Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge first went to a small frame house, the birthplace of John Quincy Adams, sixth president of the United States and his home during the revolutionary war of John Adams, signer of the Declaration of Independence and second president of the United States.

Later the party crossed to an adjoining yard where stood the modest frame dwelling where John Adams was born.

Before going back to the yacht for the return cruise to Marblehead, the President and Mrs. Coolidge visited the first parish church, in the basement of which is the resting place of both John and John Quincy Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge were accompanied by Melville E. Stone, their house guest, Secretary Sanders and a dozen photographers who made the trip at the express invitation of the president.

RAILROADS REQUEST HIGHER RATES FOR SUBURBAN SERVICE

Claim Earnings Grow Less As Costs Continue to Mount.

CHICAGO, July 15. (By Associated Press)—An aggregate loss of $2,755,048, for 1924 was claimed by the seven railroads entering Chicago and carrying a daily average of 200,000 commuters to and from the city, in the opening hearing on the petition of the railroads before the Illinois Commerce Commission today in which they ask a 20 percent increase in suburban rates.

The petition for an increase in rates has met concerted opposition by representatives of more than 100 suburban communities and villages that would be affected by the raise.

P. S. Eastis, passenger traffic manager for the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy testified that cost of suburban service had increased from 50 to 100 percent in the last 20 years while only one 10 percent increase in rates had been allowed.

L. E. Wettley, manager of the statistical bureau of the western lines stated that the cost of labor had increased more than 156 percent since 1905.

The hearings were opened before Chairman Frank L. Smith and the entire membership of the state commerce commission. The Chicago Commuters' association is actively fighting the petition.

The hearings are expected to take six weeks.

CRABTREE ESTATE CLAIMANT DISPUTED

BOSTON, July 15.—Mrs. Ida Manning Blankenburg of Tulsa, Oklahoma, met with a setback today in her attempt to establish herself as the daughter of Lottia Crabtree and thus gain a share in the "noted actress' $3,000,000 estate, left to disabled soldiers and sailors. Witnesses called in the Suffolk probate court gave testimony which conflicted with her claim.

Joseph Crabtree of Crabtree Ford, Ill., told the court that Mrs. Blankenburg had been brought up by his parents and that he had always considered her his sister. Testimony was given by Charles Wolters of Rochester, N. Y., that Lottia Crabtree appeared at a theater in Rochester, N. Y., on December 26, 1877, the date given in a Bible record previously produced by Mrs. Blankenburg's counsel as that of Lottia Crabtree's wedding in Lancashire, England.

BOOZE WORTH MILLIONS TO BE DESTROYED

Chicago, July 15. (AP)—Orders were received here today from Washington for the destruction of liquor valued at upward of $3,000,000 at bootleggers' prices. The liquor including everything from the rankest moonshine to the oldest and finest cordials has been seized by prohibition agents in raids over a period of many months and is stored in an army warehouse here which was robbed last winter. Government agents today started a check of the liquor preliminary to its destruction. Containers will either be broken or burned.

PUNCH BOARDS HAVE PART IN LOONEY TRIAL

Candy Company Official Tells of Wholesale Purchase.

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., July 15. (By Associated Press)—Further testimony regarding the punch board angle of the charges of conspiracy to protect gambling upon which John P. Looney is being tried was offered today by additional state witnesses. One of the witnesses, Max C. Rosenfield of Moline, connected with a Moline candy manufacturing concern at the time of the alleged conspiracy, testified to selling quantities of candy and punch boards to Looney, and records of the company showing the sales made to Looney were admitted in evidence, showing that at two different times Looney purchased 10 punch boards and several hundred pounds of candy to be used as prizes. This line of testimony was intended by the state to show Looney's actual participation in the punch board deals.

A feature of the afternoon's session was Looney's cross-examination of Edward Thierman, who had testified to having a conversation with Looney on a certain date regarding a piece of property belonging to the witness and which was being rented and used for immoral purposes by a certain "Billy Ray." Thierman had testified that during his conversation with Looney the latter had told him to tell the Ray woman that unless she got out, Looney would have her arrested and her place raided every night, as he wished to get control of the property himself.

Was Sure of Date
In Looney's cross-examination of the witness when he asked Thierman, "what makes you so sure of the date of your conversation with me," the witness answered, "because I bought a new pair of shoes that day and put the date in them for I wanted to know how long they would last."

Other state witnesses who testified during the afternoon were J. J. Burgess, president of the Rock Island Register company and O. F. Hildebrand, secretary of a local night order house. Their testimony had to do with protest they had made to city officials regarding Looney's operation of punch board gambling in Rock Island.

At the time, Mr. Burgess was president of the Rock Island Chamber of Commerce and Hildebrand was secretary. Hildebrand testified to conversations with H. M. Schriber, who was mayor at the time and Tom Cox, who was chief of police. Mr. Burgess told of a visit Looney later made him, complaining about Hildebrand's activity in opposing his punch board operations.

The state still has 20 witnesses to be heard and while their testimony is expected to be more brief than that of others who have been on the stand there appears to be little hope of the prosecution resting its case before Saturday. It is not known how many witnesses the defense will call but it is expected the testimony of Looney himself will be relied upon chiefly.

SEEK TO LENGTHEN DOLLAR BILL'S LIFE

WASHINGTON, July 15.—(AP)—Money experts from all parts of the United States were called into conference today at the treasury on the question how to make the dollar bill last longer.

The federal reserve banks, the bureau of engraving and printing and other treasury bureaus were represented. Assistant Secretary Dewey explained that the dollar bill now averages a life of seven months, and that more than a billion such bills were printed last year at a cost of one and seven tenths cents each. Treasury officials hope to simulate greater use of the two and five dollar bills which cost proportionately less to produce so that the one dollar bills may be held longer for seasoning before being put into circulation. Part of the money paid to treasury employees in salaries today was in two dollar bills.

ROCK SPRINGS, WYO., HEAT HALTED TRAFFIC FOR A TIME ON THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Rock Springs, Wyo., heat halted traffic for a time on the Union Pacific railroad when heat "kinks" resulted in the pulling of rail ends from ties. Street thermometers in the sun in Rock Springs registered 124. Omaha had a temperature of 99 today and other points in Nebraska and Iowa listed readings all the way from 90 to 104.

Iowa reported heavy damage to its corn crop as the result of the hot dry weather. Oats and hay have also been injured. Chicago which for several days has enjoyed moderate temperatures due to a breeze from Lake Michigan, got a taste of the scorching weather when a steadily climbing thermometer reached 94 at six o'clock tonight, then started dropping as the wind veered from Lake Michigan.

Immediate Relief From Heat Promised

CHICAGO, July 15. (By Associated Press)—Hot weather records continued to fall by the way side from the Rocky Mountain region to the Ohio river today, while a sizzling thermometer added to list of death and damage to crops.

Predictions tonight, however, were that immediate relief may be expected as forecasts thruout the midwest were for strong variable winds and much cooler weather for high tomorrow and Friday. Two additional deaths from the heat were reported from Minnesota today one in Minneapolis and one in Green Bush. Heat records were broken in scores of cities in the Rocky Mountain region with a temperature of 105.3 at Grand Junction, Colo., 99 at Denver, 101 at Fort Collins.

YOUTHFUL SLAYER OF SWEETHEART FINALLY REALIZES HIS CRIME

Breaks Down When He Enters Penitentiary For Life Term.

SIOUX FALLS, South Dakota, July 15. (By Associated Press)—Sentenced to life imprisonment for slaying his 17 year old sweetheart, Bryle Jealy, Sunday night, Winfred Meek, 21 years old, broke down when he entered the penitentiary here today and late tonight there came from his cell muffled sobs that told of awakened realization of his crime.

Meek, when he faced Judge W. N. Skinner, circuit court at Watertown today, where the latter pronounced the sentence of "hard labor for the rest of your natural life," Meek's poise deserted him as Warden J. T. Jamieson turned the key in his cell today.

"He is just beginning to realize what he has done," the warden said.

James Healy, who a post mortem examination showed, was to have become a mother, was killed after an automobile ride with Meek, who confessed that he struck her over the head with an iron bar, and then choked her to death with her own scarf. Meek said that he had committed the murder after the girl had repeatedly begged him to kill her. Meek was brought here by automobile from Watertown almost immediately after sentence was pronounced. Sheriff Earl P. Sly declared that he was anxious to get him in prison because he feared there might be a mob attack on the jail.

CARRIERS TO REDUCE THEIR FORMER DEMAND

NEW YORK, July 15. (By Associated Press)—Demands for a straight five percent increase in freight rates for the Northwestern railroads instead of an 11 percent advance previously suggested probably will be formulated at conferences in New York for which executives for the western roads are now gathering.

Hale H. Hilder, president of the Burlington railroad in New York today and asserted that the western carriers would base their claims for a five percent increase in rates on the fact that two years ago they voluntarily offered a 10 percent cut in rates on farm products. Recent developments, he said, indicated that it was now the railroads' turn to seek relief.

Mr. Holden conferred informally today with Howard Elliott, chairman of the Northern Pacific and directors of both this road and the Burlington. Later conferences are expected to bring together executives of these companies together with officials of the Great Northern, Chicago & North Western and the Soo Line as well as the receivers for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul. Their joint request for a rate revision probably will be laid before the interstate commerce commission in September.

New York, July 15. (AP)—A 2-year-old boy, named Goodman, 21, who five years ago broke relations with wealthy parents who wanted him to be a lawyer, to study architecture in a Greenwich Village studio, today was awarded the $2,000 prize in architectural design. The prize provides a two and a half year course of study at Paris by the Beaux Arts Institute of Design.

Since leaving his family Goodman has supported himself and become a professional writer as well as a student of architecture.

Attorneys for the cousins spent all afternoon arguing and citing cases as to why they should be allowed to question Shepherd on the matter of undue influence.

DRIED BLOOD EXHIBITED IN ARTHUR TRIAL

TUSCOLA, Ill., July 15. (By Associated Press)—Exhibits without blood stains on them were barred by the court today in the second trial of Opal Arthur for the murder two years ago of Charles Martin of Monticello.

The ruling came after the defense objected to the state parading before the jury a mass of exhibits including gas pipes, barn doors and bricks. The state used the same exhibits in the first trial when Arthur was convicted and sentenced to be hanged.

Due to the clash over admission of exhibits, the jury was dismissed after hearing only one witness.

Twenty four bottles of dried blood were introduced by the state as exhibits. Lawrence Gibson, former deputy sheriff, identified each as that obtained by him from the Arthur barn and from many articles in the barn. Here Martin is supposed to have bled and died after Arthur shot him in the Arthur kitchen after a lone party out in the country on the night of December 20, 1921.

Gibson also testified that he pulled Martin from the river on January 4, 1922, with hay hooks fastened on a large rope. The body, he said, was sunk with a 24 pound stone on his chest tied on with a piece of wire. A gunny sack around the body was made fast with wire.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY OPEN INVESTIGATION OF LIQUOR GRAFTING

Said to Involve Both National and State Officials.

CHICAGO, July 15. (By Associated Press)—Investigation of an alleged $250,000 liquor graft transaction which is said to involve wine dealers, state and county officials and high prohibition officers was opened today by a federal grand jury at the instigation of Patrick T. Roche, special agent of the intelligence unit of the internal revenue department.

Among the witnesses called were Frank Loveland, president of the National Fruit Products company, Harry N. said to be a wealthy dealer in sacramental wines and connected with the Colonial Wine company, L. S. Friedman, a wine salesman, Louis Abelson, who was recently arrested as a go-between for the wine dealers and prohibition officials and Morris Zevin, wholesale wine dealer.

The charges to be preferred against the alleged graft circle are conspiracy to bribe federal officials, acceptance of bribes, and conspiracy to obstruct justice and to violate the prohibition law, of officials said.

The maximum sentence in each indictment is two years in the federal penitentiary and a fine of $10,000.

After leaving his home for about a week at this time, both returned to their homes and asked forgiveness. Forgiveness was granted and both returned to their families.

HARTIG, DEFENDANT IN SLANDER SUIT PLACED ON STAND

CHICAGO, July 15. (By Associated Press)—E. L. Hartig, defendant in the $50,000 slander suit instituted by Albert R. Leland testified in his own behalf today concerning reports he had received which led him to investigate Mr. Leland.

Leland named the Rev. Carl D. Case in his divorce bill after his wife contested indiscretions with the minister who was pastor of the Oak Park church which the Leland attended and of which Hartig is an official. Dr. Case filed an intervening petition to clear his name and a church committee of which Hartig was a member investigated the matter. The lower court refused Leland a decree but the appellate court granted the divorce, following which Dr. Case carried the matter to the supreme court to clear his name. Leland's damage suit resulted from Hartig's open admission that he had been a ruler in a Turkish bath and was the father of an illegitimate child.

Hartig told today of the various reports concerning Mr. Leland, and other members of the committee received and insisted that they investigated them in an effort to get to the bottom of the whole affair and with no view to injuring Leland. He referred particularly to a conversation with Curtis L. Craver, Leland's employer, in which Leland's friendship for a stenographer was mentioned together with the fact that the stenographer had been discharged. Hartig also admitted under cross-examination that the attorney who acted as a "friend of the court" in protecting Dr. Case's interests in the divorce action had been paid $5,000 by the Oak Park church and said that he had paid $300 of the attorney's fee.

The meaning of the term "insanity" came in for a long discussion in a wrangle between Hartig and Leland's attorneys. Hartig insisted that he had never heard reports that Mrs. Leland was insane when she made her accusations against Dr. Case but he had heard she might have been "mentally unbalanced."

Hartig admitted that his investigation into Leland's character might have injured the plaintiff in a business way.

MINER CONFERENCE GETS INTO ACTION

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 15. (By Associated Press)—The anthracite scale negotiators moved into full speed today. Alvan Markle, chairman of the joint sub-committee of twelve, announced that hereafter it "will meet every day at 10 a. m. holding two sessions (instead of one) or more daily."

Meanwhile the rival teams of miners and mine owners, which comprise the joint committee, came to grips with the question of wages; whether the men's demand for an increase, or the operator's plea for a decrease, should be incorporated in renewal of the contract which expires August 31.

No decision was reached. The discussion developed charges on each part of operators that miners were restricting output in some circumstances. Miners said this was not so. They said that with miners paid by the ton such restriction would be too much at their own expense. The operators insisted however, there were actual cases in parts of District One in the Scranton and Wilkes Barre fields.

The maximum sentence in each indictment is two years in the federal penitentiary and a fine of $10,000.

NO GREAT CHANGE IN MOROCCAN SITUATION

FEZ, French Morocco, July 15.—(AP)—Most of the information gathered from different parts of the front indicates that the enemy is intensifying his propaganda and that large numbers of Moors are filtering thru the lines and behind the French troops, where they deliver local attacks. This procedure would seem to confirm the reports of an approaching offensive which are being spread among the tribes.

The general situation has not materially changed. In the Ouzan region French Artillery is bombarding the enemy position with considerable effect. In the center the enemy continues to attack stealthily between the post occasionally attacking French detachments, but without success. The activity of the Moors is increasing north of Taza.

SCOTT DOOMED TO GO TO HIS DEATH FRIDAY

Says Some Day Truth Will Be Known As to Killing.

CHICAGO, July 15. (By Associated Press)—Russell Scott, former Canadian financier and author of books on business ethics, nearly collapsed in the death cell in the Cook county jail tonight when informed that Gov. Small has refused to interfere in his execution, set for Friday morning. Scott under sentence to be hanged for the murder of Joseph Maurer, drug store clerk, during a holdup two years ago had been confident that his wife and father who went to Springfield to try to obtain a commutation of sentence from the board of pardons and paroles, would be successful.

He was tilted back on a small chair, his feet on a table reading a magazine, when reporters brought him the information. He leaped from his chair and reached for a package of cigarettes as the news was told to him.

"So they turned me down, eh?" he said, blinking to keep back the tears. "Some day they'll know the truth. Some day they'll discover the mistake they've made."

Scott has contended that his brother, Robert who fled and has never been apprehended, was the actual slayer. The date set for his execution is the birthday of the eldest of his three children.

DETECTIVES CAPTURE MAN AFTER FIGHT IN WATERS OF ILLINOIS

PEORIA, Ill., July 15. (By Associated Press)—Detectives fighting shoulder deep in the muddy bank waters of the Illinois river tonight captured Frank Seymour, 27, after an hour's struggle. Seymour was shot twice before he was captured. He was wanted for attacking two girls.

The police were sent to the river bank to arrest Seymour on the complaint of Mary Kovak, 12 years old. He was seen approaching in a row boat and as he started to dock he spied Detective Fred Montgomery who made a dash for him.

Seymour, who is an expert swimmer, leaped into the water with the detective after him. Both struggled shoulder deep in the river until Seymour fought the officer off with an oar. He then dove to the bottom and shot hogs rocks which he threw at the detective.

Police Matron Leah Javette who was on the shore with the little girls, who were along to identify the man rushed to a police box where she called reserves. After a struggle for an hour to capture the man without injury the police opened fire wounding him twice. His condition is serious but not fatal.

SENSE FROM CLERGYMEN

"Midsummer madness" is what one of the magazine editors calls the present furor over evolution, with all its hysteria and frivolity and emphasis on unimportant points and avoidance of real issues.

Here are two utterances by churchmen who are not likely to be helped to see serious people straight.

A distinguished Protestant clergyman named Dr. Henry Shreve Coffin says:

"I see no reason why Christianity should find any objection to the theory of evolution. It is merely the most widely accepted scientific theory of the method by which God apparently has created our world."

The Rev. John J. Wynne, editor of the Catholic Encyclopedia says:

"We are not in favor of making laws against the teaching of evolution if it be taught properly. Evolution should be taught as a scientific hypothesis, with the facts which tend to support it and the facts which tend to discredit it impartially displayed. It should never be preached as dogma nor attacked as heresy."

"Nor are we in favor of having evolution tried in the courts."

There are often assertions that the making of public improvements adds more than the cost to abutting property. A case in point happened recently when the city property on North East street sold to Robert F. Ferra for $2,000.

The same piece of property was offered for sale only a short time before the pavement was laid at a figure near $1200. At the recent sale there were a number of bidders.

On the day following on North Church street a property just off the pavement of approximately the same size, the house not quite so good, brought $1200 at auction.

It is a matter of record that since the pavement has been put down on North East street that seven pieces of property there have been sold at prices averaging $500 above the cost of the pavement by comparison with properties before the pavement was laid.

It is a rare instance when a street pavement does not enhance the value of the adjoining property more than the pavement cost.

FARM BUREAU NEWS

Insurance Conference—Representatives from the county, Franklin and Morgan County, Minn., heard V. Vaniman of the I. O. O. F. on Tuesday evening explain the proposed plan of a state insurance company to handle both direct and reinsurance for mutual companies. The plan provides for a system of blanket insurance so that policy holders will be protected against unusual assessments in case of high losses. Second, specific reinsurance equal to four times the amount still carried by the mutual and their direct insurance of property having an agricultural connection but not insurable under the present by-laws of most mutual companies. It will be necessary to write $500,000 direct insurance and 200 policy holders in order to get a charter. The plan also calls for a classification of property.

Those present commented favorably on the plan. Howard Johnson represented Cass county; E. L. Hemmigh and Thomas I. Iman, Franklin; A. C. Rice and Amos Swain, Morgan county.

Motion Pictures at Durbin Picnic—The Farm Bureau motion picture machine will be used at the Durbin picnic July 23rd to show educational films.

Stewart Edward White was slightly wounded by a leopard when he went to the rescue of a man who was being maulled, after he had wounded it with his bow. But he got his leopard, by choking it to death.

He and his companions have killed several lions and other big game with their bows.

If they had spears, they would not have had to shoot with guns even the charging ones. In other words, modern civilized men can do with the weapons of our barbaric ancestors, everything that was ever done.

Arrow-wounded lions have always tended to charge. Read your Homer:

"As is a lion, which the assembled hands seek to slay."

While he stalks, contemplating their assault.

But if the arrow of some strong-armed youth have smitten him, he stands and gathers all.

Half hid in foam, and uttering fearful growls.

His sides and snowy thighs to rouse himself.

To combat, and then, grimly throwing leaps.

To slay, or by the foremost youths be slain."

But did you ever see Stewart Edward White or Saxton Pope shoot?

No fox-hounds of the archery field are theirs, but bows like Robin Hood's, with cloth-yard shafts and barbs of tempered steel.

An ancient army, with such bows, and trained by such archers as these, would have conquered the world.

"Will you state what evolution is, in regard to the origin of man?"

Finally it was agreed that certain questions on evolution might be answered to furnish the basis for the discussion to follow before the court.

"Evolution," said Dr. Metcalf, "and the theories of evolution are fundamentally different things. The facts of evolution are all theory. There are thousands of theories of evolution, some of which are largely mistaken and some almost wholly true.

Word has come from our officials in New York that 105 new Stores will be added to our Nation-Wide Institution this year.

"We are in possession of scientific knowledge to answer flatly that evolution has occurred. Evolution in its final analysis means change of an organism from one set of characteristics to a form having a different set of characteristics may be found in general to be evolution.

"Starting with the inorganic world, there has been a tremendous series of changes. The sun is comparatively young. The earth has gone thru long course of change, but in organic evolution we have to conceive earliest forms of life subsisting solely on inorganic food. Only plants can do that. No animal has been able to live solely on inorganic food.

"From the first, living things developed whole series of forms in plan groups, gradually becoming more complex. These form a beautiful series as we study their bodies in the rocks.

Development Slow
"I'm inclined to believe there may have been whole series of animals and plants in the earth completely wiped out. They were succeeded by other series of plants and animals on the earth. The evidence is insufficient to determine when the first life appeared. Geologists measure ages not in years and I am not an expert in that line. I would say 600,000,000 years in a modest guess.

"A series of plants, whole series of animals were developing. Animals hustled to get their food and therefore developed locomotive organs. Plants have not. It is not so easy to tell the order in which plants evolved as to tell which plants in the higher animals. In plants there is a series of increasing complexities.

"Animal life and plant life probably began at the border line between the water and the land. For a long period in early life all living things were marine. When terrestrial life began, conditions were more difficult and needs to meet these difficulties of existence have been the occasion of developing conditions to supply these needs. Considerable portions of life on the land have gone back to the sea."

Dr. Metcalf in describing a mammal said that developed, or rudimentary, is a feature and that mammals also suckle their young. They have a vertebral column and two pairs of limbs which always have a shoulder hip girdle.

Man, said the witness, is classed among the primates. He is not so highly developed in his body as some other animals. His hand is not so skillful as the claw of a bird. Primates include monkeys, tailed and tailless, man and others of which fossil forms have been found.

Fundamental proofs of evolution, Dr. Metcalf declared, are found not in man so much as in lower animals. Various proofs found throughout the universe make a tremendous probability in favor of evolution of man.

"The series of proofs are so convincing that any informed man cannot doubt the probability of man's evolution," Dr. Metcalf concluded for the day.

THIS WOMAN'S REMARKABLE RECOVERY

Entirely Due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Forest City, Iowa.—"My first child lived only a short time and I was sick for a year after. When I bent over and raised myself up again I could not move without screaming with pain in my back. The day after that I had to leave my washing and get ready to go to the doctor. He gave me medicine but it did no more good than if I drank just water. Once when we had been in town a little while telling about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was left in our car. I have taken five bottles of the Vegetable Compound now and I do all my housework and help with the milking and taking care of chickens and garden. Besides I have a fine baby girl eight months old, just the picture of health and I am feeling fine myself. You may use this letter as a testimonial and I will answer any letters asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Oscar F. Borgelin, Route No. 5, Forest City, Iowa.

At last the way has been found to combine Pepsin with other corrective stomach agents so that it will do the most good in the shortest possible time.

Why bother with slow actors when one tablespoonful of this splendid and pleasant liquid remedy will cause gas, bloating, heaviness, heartburn or any upset condition of the stomach to speedily vanish.

And why should any man or woman suffer another hour with indigestion or any stomach misery when the remedy that acts almost instantly can be easily procured?

But there is more to say about this remarkable remedy—something that will interest thousands of dependent people.

AMERICAN AVIATORS MAY JOIN FRENCH IN MOROCCAN CAMPAIGN

To Save Complications Would Be Directly Under Sultan.

PARIS, July 15. (AP) Associated Press. Plans of Premier Painlevé are perfected, ten or 12 American veterans of the Lafayette Expedition and Foreign Legion will soon enter the service, nominally of the Sultan of Morocco, but in reality of the French army, in an attempt to crush Abi El Krim.

The premier with some reluctance because of international complications finally accepted the offer of the Americans but in order not to favor them at the expense of the French by allowing short term enlistments in the French army, he is endeavoring to have them contract for short engagements directly under the sultan, thereby he will avoid breaking the sultan's rule that all enlistments must be for five years.

The Lafayette volunteers include Paul Rockwell, Granville A. Pollock, Charles Sweeney and other war tried veterans. They are hopeful of increasing their number as soon as the news of their projected venture reaches former pilots of the A. E. F. now in the United States. American Legion representatives called the war office. They asked for details of the proposed short term engagements and were told virtually that as soon as the foreign office had arranged matters with the sultan, "the more the merrier" slogan would be in force for American volunteers desirous of aiding France in pacifying the Rifians and safeguarding the Moroccan protectorate.

(AP)—The opening of a $7,000,000 boulevard South Parkway, connecting the South side of the city with the business district was celebrated today with a parade in which more than 6,000 cars and 100 floats took part. The opening of the boulevard marks the completion of the first step in the $100,000,000 lake front improvement plan being undertaken by the city.

REFUND MUST BE PAID AFTER COURT ORDER

In the Journal yesterday, announcement was made that property owners who paid their assessments for boulevard lighting would be allowed a reduction of 10 per cent. This statement was made in error, although the property owners will eventually receive the amount indicated. The members of the board of local improvements were of the opinion that the money could be deducted at the time of payment, but later it was found that an order of court is necessary before the amount of the assessment made under the act could be changed.

However, the numerous property owners who paid yesterday to avoid the interest on their assessments did not receive the 10 per cent rebate, but this money will be repaid to them after a court action.

The one way to be certain always of perfect Jam and Jelly

SKILL won't do it—even the most experienced housewife knows those discouraging times when jams and jellies just will not set.

But Certo will do it every time. When you add Certo any fruit is bound to jelly. You cannot have a failure.

Certo is the very element in fruit that makes it jelly. This jelly-making element is lacking in some fruits; in all fruits it grows less as they ripen.

But with Certo you can make your jams and jellies from these choicest ripe fruits. For Certo itself supplies the jellying element.

And you can make half again as many glasses from the same amount of fruit. For you only need to boil one minute when you use Certo. It saves all the rich fruit juice and the lovely color and flavor that used to be wasted in steam. Order Certo today from your grocer. Douglas-Pectin Corp., Granite Bldg., Rochester, N. Y.

BOXING ENTHUSIASTS HONOR PANTHO VILLA

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 15. (AP)—The world of fistiana, usually red-faced with excitement and hoarse from the hue and cry of the ring stood mute today besides the bier of one of the most picturesque of its heroes, Francisco Guilleo, known to the sporting world as Pancho Villa, flyweight champion. The little fighter succumbed by white robed doctors and nurses took on the grim spectre of death itself for an unlimited time in a little hospital room yesterday and lost, asking no quarter. Today the requiem gong tolled the end of the round.

One plan is to have the body of the brave little fighter lie in state in a big hall for a few days to permit his thousands of admirers to gaze upon him for the last time. His manager, Frank Churchill today, said that no plan had been completed. It is tentatively proposed to place his body on a steamer leaving for Manila Saturday.

Manager Churchill received many messages of condolence today from far and wide, many of them commenting on the gameness of the boy who went into the ring for his last fight on July 4th, suffering agony from the fatal infection in his jaw, because he did not want to "break" the promoter and disappoint the fans.

NOTICE OF EXAMINATION

DEMPSEY READY FOR WILLS NEXT YEAR

Announces He Will Probably Fight in September With Gene Tunney as His Opponent.

NEW YORK, July 15. (AP)—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion and his bride, the former Estelle Taylor, returned from Europe today on the liner Homeric which docked late this afternoon. Dempsey said he was prepared to fight once this year, probably in September with Gene Tunney, American light heavyweight champion, as his opponent.

Asked about a fight with Harry Wills, Dempsey said he would be ready for him next year. Dempsey said he had an offer from Floyd Fitzsimmons for a fight at Michigan City, Ind., on Labor Day with Bartley Madden as an opponent but wanted time to consider this before accepting.

Relative to his status with the New York state athletic commission, Dempsey said he expected to straighten matters out with the commission some time next week. He said his contract with Jack Kearns did not expire until September 1, 1926, and that Kearns would book any matches for him. The champion appeared in good shape although somewhat tired from the long trip. He expects to remain in New York for about a week after which he will leave for the Pacific Coast to close up some business arrangements and to see his parents in Salt Lake City.

Market Report

By The Associated Press

WHEAT VALUES RECEIVE SETBACK

CHICAGO, July 15. (By Associated Press)—Cooler weather predictions pointing to likelihood of a check on damage to the spring wheat crop gave a decided setback to wheat values today.

Largely as a result the closing in the wheat market was heavy. 1c to 2c net lower, September $1.51 1/2 to $1.52 and December $1.52 1/2 to $1.53, with corn 1c to 1 1/2 off, oats 3/4 to 1c down, and provisions varying from 30c decline to 10 to 12c advance.

Prospects of cooler weather were quick in showing that crop damage reports appeared as yet a secondary matter. Leadership in a general selling movement was taken by houses with northwest connection and current trade gossip meanwhile was to the effect that the paramount crop factor at the moment was relief from high temperature high humidity and high winds. Corn and oats were governed chiefly by the action of wheat. Corn crop reports were construed as generally favorable.

For the most part the provision market was firm reflecting the course of hog values.

INDUSTRIALS SHOW UPWARD MOVEMENT

NEW YORK, July 15. (By Associated Press)—Constructive forces were again at work in today's stock market which witnessed a broad upward movement under the leadership of the standard industrials. Trading was substantially increased volume, closing quotations disclosing a large number of gains ranging from 1 to 3 points in the active issues.

The buying movement apparently was influenced by a lowering of call money rates, resumption of dividends on Vandubbin stock, particularly of favorable weekly steel trade reviews and reports of expanding public participation by the larger commission houses.

Predictions of the long awaited revival of railroad buying stimulated the demand of the steel shares. United States Steel common closed more than two points higher at 117 1/2. Republic, Republic and Gulf States each moved about 2 and Crucible and Ludlum 1.

With public utilities companies reporting a long succession of record-breaking earnings statements the public imagination fired by proposed super-powered projects, there was a good demand for power and light stocks.

Particularly the eastern coal carline developed a show of strength at the opening, but the rally was not sustained. The Wheeling & Lake Erie issues again established new maximum quotations, but shares of most of the trunk line systems showed only fractional change.

Call money renewed at four percent and the market for some time was reported in the outside market as low as 3 1/2. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged. With the exception of heavy profit-taking in the Scandinavian currencies which resulted in Norwegian and Danish kroner falling back about 12 points there was little of interest in the foreign exchange market. Demand for sterling ruled slightly easier around $4.85, but the others rallied.

CHICAGO CASH GRAIN

CHICAGO, July 15. (AP)—Cash wheat met with good demand today. Millers were good buyers. Offerings were light. The market was 1 1/2 to 3c easier. The trading basis was unchanged to 3c easier for winter grades and nominally unchanged for spring. Local shipping sales were 19,000 bushels. Vessel room was chartered for 120,000 bushels to Buffalo. New York estimated 200,000 bushels worked to exporters and also some No 2 Manitoba.

Corn was in good demand with shippers and stock yard interests the best buyers. The market was 1c easier to 1 1/2c better. The trading basis was unchanged to 1 1/2c higher; local shipping sales were 106,000 bushels. Deliveries were 87,000 bushels.

Oats finished steady to 1c easier. The trading basis was 1c better for No 2 whites and unchanged to 1c better for No 3 whites. New No 2 white from western Illinois sold at 39c weight 29 1/2 pounds. Local sales were 113,000 bushels. Charters were made for 340,000 bushels to Georgian Bay.

REQUEST GROUPS TO OBSERVE CENTENNIAL

Letters are being sent out from centennial headquarters urging all churches, lodges and other organizations of the city, which have not already held some observance during the centennial year, to do so before the year closes. The commission is anxious that all organizations in some way celebrate the centennial, emphasizing the history of their own particular groups. In the letters in question, information is asked as to what organizations have done or intend to do in the way of celebration.

There are numerous historical spots yet to be marked. It is thought that every church and lodge will at least want to mark the site of its original meeting place with some suitable tablet. The D. A. B. has already done its part in marking the site of the birthplace of Ellen Hardin Walworth. The home of Governor Joseph Duncan now bears a memorial to his honor. The general committee has marked the site of the original survey and that of the first school building.

During the county fair this year there will be one day set apart as centennial day, at which time a tablet marking the site of General Grant's camp will be unveiled. Sometime during the year, it is also planned to mark the home of Mother Carson, the site of the Rio Grande Tavern, and a number of other spots of historic interest. The Wabash Railroad Co. has consented to erect a tablet at the station here, marking the right-of-way of the Northern Cross railroad, the first in the Mississippi Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wells have arrived here from Los Angeles, Cal., for an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Wells on Prospect street. The Messrs. Wells are brothers.

EDWARD WARD CALLED BY DEATH SUDDENLY

Local Man Dies at Farm Near City—Jury Says Heat Induced Dilatation of Heart.

Inquiry into the death of Edward Ward, which occurred suddenly about 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of Clarence Muchhaussen, 24 miles north of the city, was held last night at the Gillham Funeral Home by a coroner's jury. It was found that Mr. Ward came to his death by an attack of acute dilatation of the heart induced by heat.

Testimony was to the effect that Mr. Ward walked from town to the Muchhaussen home in the heat of the day, to resume employment on the farm at which he had been engaged the day previous. On reaching the house, he became suddenly ill and was assisted to a chair in the yard by K. D. Hicks and Clarence Day, who happened to be in the vicinity. He died before anything could be done for him.

Dr. Ellsworth Black, who testified that he had been treating Ward for heart trouble, was summoned and reached the scene as the man was breathing his last. He stated during the inquest that Ward had been troubled with Myocarditis for sometime, and that he as a physician for the Illinois Power & Light Co., had treated him while he was in the employ of that firm.

The jury impaneled by Coroner Young consisted of C. C. Self, foreman; Thomas Fynn, Frank Todd, George Corbridge, George Souza and H. M. Casey, clerk.

Mr. Ward was the son of William W. and Sarah Ward, being at the time of his death about 66 years of age. He was united in marriage in the year 1907 to Lillie Cole of Ashland. There were no children. He leaves his widow, and a sister, Mrs. Alice Whalen on South Clay avenue. There are also a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

DR. McCLELLAND MAY BE I. W. C. HEAD

Name Will Be Presented at Meeting of Trustees to Be Held Soon.

It is likely that Dr. C. P. McClelland of Carmel, N. Y., will become the president of Illinois Woman's college to succeed Dr. J. R. Harter, whose resignation has been in the hands of the trustees for a long period. Several months ago a committee of which Senator James H. MacMurray is the chairman, was appointed to suggest a successor for Dr. Harter, and the committee after an extended investigation decided upon Dr. McClelland and his name will be presented with favorable recommendation to the trustees at a meeting of the board which has been called for Thursday, July 23. Dr. McClelland served as a pastor for several years and since 1918 has been president of Drew Seminary at Carmel.

The exams will be in charge of County Superintendent Vasconcellos and his assistant, W. B. Lowery.

MAY OFFER EXCURSION TO NIAGARA FALLS

The Chamber of Commerce is considering the possibility of an excursion to Niagara Falls via the Wabash. It is believed that very low rates could be secured if a sufficient number of persons could be induced to take the trip. The excursionists would be allowed to spend three days at the falls, and would have the opportunity of side trips. It is understood that other cities have put on similar excursions with success.

PALMYRA LAD LOSES APPENDIX IN ACCIDENT

Melvin Bastie Shoots Self With Small Pistol—Is Brought to Passavant Hospital

An accident, the result of which was extremely unusual occurred yesterday when Melvin Bastie, aged 10, son of Lee Bastie of Palmyra, Ill., shot himself in the abdomen, severing the appendix. The lad was rushed to Passavant hospital here following the shot and an operation performed by Dr. Carl E. Black showed that the appendix had been severed by the ball from a gun with which the boy had been playing.

The lad had been playing with the pistol, a small one of 22 calibre when he accidentally shot himself. Dr. D. T. Doan of Palmyra was called and the boy was brought immediately to the local hospital.

As soon as the lad was examined it was found that an operation would be necessary and the operation revealed a severed appendix. The ball from the gun took a downward course, an x-ray revealing it located in the thigh. The lad's condition is considered serious.

HOLD HEARINGS FOR DAMAGE CLAIMS

The Illinois Claims Commission, appointed by Speaker Robert Scholes under resolution of the trustees of the Sanitary District of Chicago, is now holding hearings on "Claims for Damages" in Chicago.

Property owners of the Illinois River valley who have suffered losses in former years, must not overlook the fact that August 13, 1925, is the time limit set by the Sanitary District trustees for filing with this commission of all such claims. This is important. Although the 1922 flood loss approximates $20,000,000 alone, at this date, only some 600 claims have been reported as filed with the trustees.

While all claims for damages for the past five years have a legal standing in court, it is confidently hoped this commission will make an earnest endeavor to have reimbursed those whose damages have continued to accumulate over a period of years by reason of the ever increasing diversion from Lake Michigan. If this is not done, it would hardly seem justice will have been fully meted in this crime committed against the downstate people.

NEW PAVING PLANS LAUNCHED YESTERDAY

East Morton Avenue Residents Favor Concrete—To Ask Three-Way Bids—Alley D. Sewer Now Assured

The beginning of another period of public improvement in Jacksonville was made yesterday when the Board of Local Improvements spent the entire afternoon and evening conducting public hearings on various paving and sewer projects. At the final hearing last night, the board heard discussions of the proposal to pave East Morton avenue from South Main street to Hardin avenue. The hearing brought out the fact that the property owners are much in favor of a concrete pavement on this street, maintaining that the heavy traffic which the hard road east has brought to the street compels the laying of material that will stand the strain.

In the discussion, citizens expressed doubts that the asphalt would hold up under the traffic, and stated that they had the word of experts in the state highway department that concrete would prove the best material for their purpose. It was the general sentiment that a pavement should be laid which would not wear out in a few years.

As a result of the discussion, Mayor Crabtree assured the citizens that they should have whatever kind of pavement they wanted, but regretted that they seemed prejudiced against the asphalt. The cost and qualifications of both materials were considered at length. The estimate shows a cost of $22,000 for concrete and $26,000 for asphalt in this particular project.

It was finally decided by the citizens to ask for alternate bids on three kinds of paving material, including concrete, and that a committee of five should be selected to determine the kind to be used. The mayor assured them that the decision of this committee on opening the bids would govern the action of the board.

Hearing Postponed
At the hearing on the proposal to pave South Kosciusko street and West Chambers street from Kosciusko to Diamond street, held yesterday afternoon, considerable opposition developed. However, it was found that the petitioners for the pavement had a majority of the frontage on Kosciusko street, while the Chambers street residents were solidly against it. Owing to failure to reach an agreement, the hearing was postponed to 2 o'clock this afternoon. It is probable that the Chambers street section will be left out of the program.

The board was also busy yesterday morning, holding two hearings, at which it was voted to proceed with the laying of the 15-inch sewer along Alley D from East State street to the brook sewer, and also to pave the block on North West street between Court and Douglas avenue and on South West street between Morgan street and College avenue. A small sewer district has been created in the east section of the business district and extending south to the brook to provide funds for laying the new sewer. The improvement is badly needed, as frequent rains mean flooded basements in business buildings along East State street beyond East street. Centenary church has suffered damage on account of inadequate sewer facilities, as have the I. O. O. F. temple and the new Cloverleaf building.

Mayor Crabtree explained last night that the paving contracts are this time to be let under the open bid system, which he has been endeavoring to establish here. He told the East Morton avenue residents that the people had during the earlier improvement undertakings demanded certain kind of work, saying they wanted only the best. This meant closed bids, and it is only recently that the bars have been let down and bids will now be asked on various paving materials including asphalt, concrete and the Warrenite vitrolithic.
